

A Retro Horror Font From the VHS Archives

Introducing a font that travels back to a time to when movies came on VHS tapes and lived inside your local video rental store.

Those who remember the 1980s and 90s will tell you of browsing through countless boxes, each competing for attention through outlandish cover art and hyperbolic titles drawn with eye-catching lettering. "X-Rental" aims to revisit this bygone era with a versatile font family drawn in brush, pen and ink that perfectly captures the thrill of the Friday night horror movie.

The X-Rental Font offers a complete set of uppercase and lowercase characters, along with numerals, punctuation, symbols and language support. You'll find Regular, Outline, Light and All Caps styles, each with their set of alternatives, so you can avoid ever having to repeat you ee's, tt's and oo's - essential for truly hand-made look.
